Rescheduling Process

We understand that life happens, and absences will occur from time-to-time. So, if you and/or your child cannot make your lesson (*please refer to the list of reasons for lesson cancellations below) you can contact your teacher through a call or text. We do ask, if it is possible, that a 24-hour notice of cancellation be given to your teacher out of courtesy to them. Once cancellation has occurred, you will obtain a make-up credit from your teacher, which will be kept in our records. This make-up lesson can be scheduled at your earliest convenience. It will be scheduled according to the availability of your child's teacher or with another teacher if needed. This will be a one-time rescheduled make-up lesson, so once the date for the rescheduled lesson has been set, the credit will automatically expire.

Reasons for Lesson Cancellation: (include but are not limited to the following)
